Acknowledgments

This research was initiated by Susan J. Kontos (1949-2003) and is dedicated to her memory. Demetra Evangelou served as project coordinator the first two years. Becke Sero Lynn, Kay Schurr, and Candace Olmstead served as research assistants, making invaluable contributions to participant recruitment and data collection. Denise Dorsey-Zinn edited this report. The Purdue research team offers special thanks to the parents, children, and child care providers who volunteered and gave of their time and perspectives. The Community Child Care Research Project and this report were made possible by grant number 90YE0047 from the Child Care Bureau, Administration on Children, Youth and Families, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The total amount of the federal grant award was $634,463 plus an additional 20% matching funds provided by Purdue University. The contents of the report are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not represent the official views of the funding agency, nor does publication in any way constitute an endorsement by the funding agency.

The research received important guidance from its advisory committee, composed of state officials, child advocates, and county-level child care leaders. We wish to thank the following advisory committee members:
