

Sixth Annual Purdue-UAB Botanicals Center
Symposium
Botanicals and Age-Related Diseases
Friday, March 3, 2006

Birmingham Radisson Hotel
808 20th Street South
Birmingham, Alabama

Thursday, March 2

6:00-9:00 pm Reception at Birmingham Botanical Gardens

Friday, March 3 Symposium at the Birmingham Radisson Hotel

- |             |    |   |
|-------------|----|---|
| 8:00-8:25   | am | Breakfast & Registration  |
| 8:25-8:30   |    | Introduction  |
| 8:30-9:10   |    | "Tomato Phytochemicals and Risk of Prostate Cancer"John Erdman (University of Illinois-Urbana)  |
| 9:10-9:35   |    | "Alcohol and Polyphenol Mediated Cardioprotection: NO. News is Good News"Dale Parks (University of Alabama at Birmingham)               |
| 9:40-10:05  |    | "The lens of the eye - a new target for polyphenol-containing supplements in aging"Stephen Barnes (University of Alabama at Birmingham) |
| 10:05-10:20 |    | Coffee Break  |
| 10:20-10:50 |    | "Soy food consumption and risk of cardiovascular diseases and bone fracture"Xiao-ou Shu (Vanderbilt University)                         |
| 10:50-11:15 |    | "Isoflavones and Bones"Connie Weaver (Purdue University)  |
| 11:15-11:40 |    | "Kudzu: Cardiovascular and Cognitive Function"J. Michael Wyss (University of Alabama at Birmingham)                                     |
| 11:40-12:10 |    | "Nuclear hormone receptors as targets for natural products"David Moore (Baylor College of Medicine)                                     |
| 12:10-3:00  |    | Lunch and poster viewing (awards to be given to top student and postdoctoral fellow posters at 3:00 pm)  |
| 3:00-4:00   |    | Tours of UAB facility   |

For further information contact Rose Johnson (Rose.Johnson@ccc.uab.edu or 205 934-6766)